Teri,

Sandi and I have discussed the issue regarding our photos and your continuing efforts to extort us for more money than what was originally agreed. Sandi and I both are completely discussed by your behavior. Again, we are unwilling to give you any satisfaction you hope to gain by acting the way your acting.

We have talked with a lawyer regarding this issue and have decided that we will pay you $125.00 provided you surrender to us the full resolution, unedited, raw photos you took at our wedding. This is the agreement that was in place at the time that you took the pictures of our wedding. We will not sign anything limiting our use of our pictures as that was not part of the agreement in place at the time you took our photos.

Should you be unwilling to agree to be paid the $125.00 and surrender our photos we revoke your rights to use any photos taken of Adam and Sandi Byers, [name omitted], anyone in the [name omitted], [name omitted], [name omitted], [name omitted], [name omitted] or [name omitted] Families.

In addition, If you do not agree to be paid $125.00 and surrender all full resolution, unedited, raw photos you have of our wedding we will be filing a claim with the Small Claims Court in Yamhill County, for the recovery of our photos. You should understand that if you are ruled against in court, not only will you have to surrender our photos, but you will have to cover our court costs of between $50-$100.

Teri, we are both discussed that you are holding these photos hostage, trying to extort money out of us. It's simply despicable and I lack the words to describe how low you have sunk. At this point it is not so much about the pictures but about the principal of you failing to stand by your word.

Understand that this is serious - it's your choice: we pay you $125.00 and you surrender every photo you took at our wedding - full resolution, unedited, raw photos - if you can't agree to this expect to be served within the week.

You have 48 hours to respond - after that we will start the process of filling a case against you.
